

PRESS RELEASE

Padma Resort Legian launches New Deluxe Chalet, New Garden Club Chalet, Studio Suite and New Deluxe Suite

Legian, December 2017 - Padma Resort Legian announces exciting news of its brand new rooms, the New Deluxe Chalet, New Garden Club Chalet, Studio Suite and New Deluxe Suite. These freshly renovated rooms maintain their charms with a sleek, modern Balinese design and a warm décor. "Our loyal guests do love and appreciate us making changes and improving our rooms as well as resort facilities as the majority of them have been coming back since the early years of Padma Resort Legian" William Santoso, Padma Resort Legian's Hotel Manager stated.

Completed with a private balcony access and refreshing garden setting, the New Deluxe Chalet room had been polished with natural color schemes to turn the guests' holiday mood on. A stylish design and new features such as wardrobe area with additional drawers and improved room lightings have been implemented according to guests' feedback, to suit their needs. The size of them room remains the same. However, the fresh new layout of this New Deluxe Chalet room makes it look more spacious.

The New Garden Club Chalet is the epitome of contemporary Balinese elegance. It is located in a prime spot within a secluded wing of the resort and encompassed by tropical greenery which is one of the Padma Royals' most favorites. The en-suite bathroom promises spa-styled bathing indulgence with a large rain-shower recess, and free-standing bathtub in all rooms. One of the benefits of staying in the New Garden Club Chalet is privileged access to the Garden Club Lounge to enjoy complimentary afternoon tea and evening cocktails.

Previously known as Premier Club Chalet, the Studio Suite was created as part of the resort improvement project. It is perfectly placed within a two-tier Balinese chalet that is edged by native flora. A large picture window fills this restful accommodation category with the warmth of natural daylight. There are clearly defined areas to relax and sleep, along with new dining area, living room, and a spacious terrace adding an extra dimension to the suite. A contemporary en-suite bathroom comes with all the luxuries that really count, such as a rain shower, and free-standing bathtub.

Tasteful in every possible way, the New Deluxe Suite is spacious-appointing to anticipate the needs of discerning travelers. It is set within a two-tier Balinese style chalet that is surrounded entirely by a garden of lush greenery. Full sized glass windows and doors create a seamless effect that blends harmoniously with the outdoors. This suite has been designed for adult privacy with a separate bedroom, smart living area and a generous balcony. The overall look personifies modern Balinese elegance in a way that makes for quality stay. The luxurious en-suite bathroom, with its rain shower, and free-standing bathtub lends itself ultimate indulgence. This is topped off by a walk-in dressing room featuring ample storage space.

"We have been getting great responses from our guests who have stayed in our brand new rooms since we first launched them. One thing they love the most is that we did not leave the Balinese touch behind" William Santoso added. Further details on room specification are as follows.
