Padma Resort Legian introduces The Spa to welcome 2017

Legian, January 2017 – To welcome the New Year of 2017, Padma Resort Legian unveils The Spa which was previously operated by Mandara Spa. Since September 1997, Padma Resort Legian has entrusted Mandara Spa as their spa operator.

“We are happy to finally be operating our own spa which will still be upholding the quality and product to be in the same level as international spa operators. We have prepared various treatments starting from traditional treatments to internationally known treatments with experience therapists, “stated by Ms. Eti Rusmiati, Hotel Manager.

Padma Hotels finally took the step to operate their own spa based on the experience they had from establishing The Spa in Padma Resort Ubud. Opening and operating their own spa has proven to be successful from the many guests that enjoy the treatment they offer. Many outside guests have tried and have become regular customers of The Spa at Padma Resort Ubud.

Starting from 1 January 2017, under the same name, The Spa at Padma Resort Legian is officiated and opens for in-house guests and public guests. The Spa uses herbs and traditional recipes for aromatherapy and massage oil. The Spa cooperates with international product, Elemis, the number one spa product in England, for their face treatment line.
