

PRESS RELEASE

Padma Resort Legian Unveils the New Junior Suite

Legian, Bali, May 2018 – As part of its commitment to strive for excellent service and deliver the best holiday experience to its loyal guests, Padma Resort Legian is proud to unveil the brand new room, Junior Suite. Offering sophistication in total comfort, Balinese modern architecture has influenced the interior design of this new room. Furniture and amenities are well sourced and curated from local designers and high end brands in hopes to provide new sanctuary for discerning leisure travelers.

Inheriting the Balinese contemporary look, the new Junior Suite is polished with a sleek Balinese design that combines traditional touch with modern elegance. The suite offers extensive features such as spacious room with semi dining spot equipped with Espresso machine, walk-in closet, a lavish en-suite bathroom completed with spa-inspired bath tub and large rain shower.

This 66.49 square feet meter room is furnished with a king-sized bed that can accommodate three adults or two adults and one child. Located in a prime spot of Padma Resort Legian, the suite is positioned within the direct sight of the famous flying fish sculpture. One of the benefits of Junior Suite is the privileged access to the Garden Club Lounge for all day refreshments and evening cocktails.

"We are excited to introduce the new Junior Suite, a novel concept with versatile spaces and features, to be added in our guest-rooms collection. We do hope that its fresh look and distinguished modern design will satisfy the expectations of varied guests, as it is in our main focus to work on endless improvements in order to create a world-class experience." Stated William Santoso, the Hotel Manager of Padma Resort Legian.
