PRESS RELEASE

Padma Hotels Showcases Music Diversity in Songs Without Words

Bali, February 2018 – Following the success of Solo Tango Orquesta concert and gala dinner, Padma Hotels proudly presents another classical music concert titled Songs Without Words to close the year of 2018.

Sam Decaprio on Cello and Edith Widayani – Piano, will be the stars of the evening. Decaprio, an award-winning cellist from Yale University has attained several awards such as Oneppo Chamber Music, William C. Byrd and Aldo Parisot Prize. He recently recorded an album for international records company with a Cuban-jazz composer and pianist, David Virelles. Widayani, on piano, is one of the most influential young pianists in Indonesia being an award receiver for Achievement in International Forum by the Ministry of Culture and Tourism of the Republic of Indonesia. With her extensive experience being a chamber musician and music educator, she is delighted to perform her skills in front of Bali's classical music lovers along with the talented Decaprio. Together, they will be harmonising two different instruments into beautiful arrangements. The repertoire includes some amazing plays by Ponce/ Heifetz, Faure, Rachmaninoff and more.

The concert will be held on Friday, 21 December 2018, 5.30 PM at Heliconia Ballroom, Padma Resort Ubud, at IDR 300,000 nett per person for show only and IDR 488,000+/- person for a show with buffet dinner. Also on Saturday, 22 December 2018, 5.30 PM at Plumeria Grand Ballroom, Padma Resort Legian, at IDR 300,000 nett per person. Both concerts will start with selections of canapés and wine for guest to enjoy before the show. A special 50% discount is available for music school students, as well as a 30% special discount for BCA card holders at Padma Resort Legian.
